85 Crewmen Lost In Sinking of Australian Destroyer

Carrier Rams Into Vessel Near Navy Base

Investigation of Disaster Ordered By Prime Minister

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Prime Minister Sir Robert Menzies ordered a public investigation today in the sinking of Australia's first pushbutton destroyer, the Voyager, after a collision with the carrier Melbourne Monday night.

The navy said an air and sea search is continuing off the Australian coast for 85 missing crew members of the 3,500-ton destroyer. There were fears many went down with their ship. Nine of the Voyager's 17 officers were among the missing.

Calling the disaster shocking and unparalleled in Australia's peacetime naval history, Menzies said a normal navy inquiry was inadequate. He said he would appoint a judge to investigate.

The 20,000-ton Melbourne, the Australian navy's flagship, smashed into the Voyager amidship, breaking the destroyer in half. The Voyager's bow section sank within minutes. The after section remained afloat for nearly three hours.

The Voyager carried 324 officers and men. At least 239 were rescued.

No casualties were reported aboard the carrier. Its bow badly battered, the Melbourne continued under her own power to Sydney, 120 miles north. The collision occurred 20 miles off the coast, near the Jervis Bay naval base, shortly after 9 p.m.

Both ships were equipped with radar-controlled steering, and their modern equipment was a source of pride to the Australian navy.

The Voyager, launched in 1957 was the largest destroyer ever built in Australia. With her anti-aircraft guns as well as steering controlled by radar, the electronically guided vessel could go into action with all hands below deck.

Navy Minister Alexander J. Forbes said the accident occurred while the Melbourne's planes were carrying out touch-and-go exercises — swooping down on the deck, then taking off again without stopping.

The Voyager was standing by about a half mile astern of the Melbourne to pick up any fliers whose planes crashed into the sea.

The collision occurred as the Voyager cut across the Melbourne's bow when the carrier reversed course, Forbes said.

The Voyager's skipper, Capt. Duncan Stevens, was reported to have been on the bridge at the time. He is among the missing.

2 Badly Hurt In Sebring Traffic Crash

SEBRING — Two persons are in serious condition in Alliance City Hospital as the result of a two-car accident at 6:50 a. m. today on Lake Park Blvd.

Norman Wilkinson, 14, of 2590 Lake Park Blvd., and Herman Nuzum of Lexington Road were passengers in a car driven by Fred Gray, 41, of 2590 Lake Park Blvd., when the car stalled on Lake Park Blvd. about 205 feet west of the Alden Ave. Ext.

The driver and passengers were standing on the street on the driver's side of the stalled car when a car driven by Lawrence Barnes, 25, of 404 S. Freedom Ave., struck the Gray car from behind, which in turn struck Wilkinson and Gray, throwing them 15 feet and onto the pavement. Nuzum saw the Barnes car coming and jumped clear.

The Wilkinson boy suffered a fractured leg and skull fracture and Mr. Gray received chest injuries, a fractured leg and fracture of the skull.

The driver of the other car was treated at Alliance City Hospital for a neck injury and released. He was charged by police with failure to stop in assured clear distance.

Pakistani Is Impressed

Educator to End Month's Visit In Salem Schools

By GLENN SCHOTTEN

Pakistan schools may some day take on a semblance of Salem and California schools if a prominent educator who will conclude a one-month stay here Wednesday has his way.

Ahmad Saeed Khan said he has made a "good harvest of ideas" from his observations here and plans to sow the seeds of progress in his homeland where he is president of the Government College at Hyderabad.

AFTER THOUSANDS of words heard and said here, Khan said he is leaving with the "sweetest memories" of his lifetime. Probably no visitor in Salem has been on a more rugged speaking circuit than the Pakistani. He has listened and learned, talked and informed almost incessantly since he arrived to stay at the home of Supt. of Schools and Mrs. Paul E. Smith.

Besides his observation of the entire Salem school system, he has visited colleges, farms, industries, and numerous private homes. But the strenuous visit never dimmed his good spirits and sense of humor.

Among other things, our physical education program, the ungraded primary system and cafeterias made a deep impression on him. His goal is to set a wave of sympathy in motion in Pakistan for similar programs there.

"Too often in Pakistan the schools consider the exercise the children get walking to and from the school enough," Khan said. "But this is folly and if we want our nation to be competitive in the world we must emphasize physical training in schools and colleges." He admits that such a program would require a large outlay of funds since Pakistani schools are poorly equipped with PT facilities, such as gyms, grounds and pools.

KHAN SAYS he likes the "flexibility of organization and the idea of continuous progress of the ungraded system." He is taking literature on Salem's ungraded plan now used in the first four grades. "I hope one day we will try this system," Khan stated.

Provision of mid-day meals also caught the educator's eye. "It's a good thing to furnish a subsidized noon meal for children if they are to spend six or seven hours a day in school," he said.

OTHER PRACTICES or principles which Khan considered "quite noble or quite effective

Taft, Glenn Petitions Are Held Up by Brown

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Secretary of State Ted W. Brown delayed certification today on petitions of Republican Congressman — at-large Robert Taft Jr., and Democrat LT. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. as candidates for U. S. senatorial nominations in Ohio's May 5 primary elections.

Brown, an opponent of Taft for the GOP Senate nomination, said the action placed him in an embarrassing position but that he felt obliged to act because of his duty as the state's chief election official.

Brown rejected Taft petitions bearing about 3,400 signatures, leaving the congressman about 1,600 valid names. Statute requires a minimum of 1,000 signatures to qualify. Brown said pair of petitions had been changed to conform to Taft's master petition approved earlier by the secretary of state.

The secretary said he planned to call in notaries public and circulators to determine whether changes on part petitions were made before or after signatures were obtained. He explained that changes made in part petitions after obtaining signatures would invalidate those petitions.

Brown added that part petitions must be the same as a candidate's master petition.

Rep. Robert Reckman of Cincinnati, Ohio House majority floor leader and manager of Taft's senatorial campaign, said all changes on petitions were made before they were circulated.

Signatures on Glenn's petitions, Brown said, are valid but that a question over application of the Hatch Act, barring political activity by federal employees, had arisen.

Daytime Use Of Trumbull Jail Okayed

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — Trumbull County Sheriff Robert W. Barnett has been given permission by the county commissioners to keep prisoners in the unused 91-year-old county jail during the daytime only.

Commissioners Roy A. Stillwagon and Robert E. Hagan agreed on the daytime hours Monday, but Hagan refused to go along with Stillwagon's proposal to allow the sheriff to keep not more than 24 prisoners at the jail full time.

Sheriff Barnett transferred his prisoners to the Ashtabula and Mahoning county jails after the commissioners ordered the Trumbull County jail closed last month.

Stillwagon offered his 24-prisoner proposal after word was received from the state fire marshal that his department had approved keeping that number in the jail.

However, Hagan said he "did not think the jail was 'fit for human habitation'" and contended that no prisoner should be kept there overnight.

'Accidental' Ruled In Fatal Shooting

WELLSVILLE — William (Buck) Powell, commander of American Legion Post 70 here, was found dead at his home of a bullet wound in the head Monday.

Powell, 42, had been shot with a .45 caliber pistol he apparently was cleaning.

Columbiana County Deputy Coroner Roy C. Costello ruled the death accidental.

Riot Staged by Greek Students

Arrival of U.S. Official Marred

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — A clash between police and thousands of Greek students trying to march on the U.S. and British embassies greeted Undersecretary of State George Ball on his Cyprus peace mission Monday.

Demanding union of Cyprus with Greece, the students demonstrated to underscore their opposition to the London-Washington plan for an international peace force to police Cyprus.

Ball was reported to have run into an unexpected check in trying to win Greek approval of the plan. He delayed his departure for Turkey, second stop on his mission.

Informed sources said Greece approved the peace force plan provided it first got approval of the U.N. Security Council. The Soviet Union, which opposes the peace force, could veto it in the council.

Government sources in Nicosia said the president of Cyprus, Archbishop Makarios, was cer-

State Committee Appointed

Expansion Of Vocational Training Mapped By Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's Board of Education, preparing for major expansion of vocational training, has named an 18-member advisory committee to develop plans to put increased federal funds to best use.

Educators, labor and business representatives will serve on the committee.

Byrl R. Shoemaker, director of vocational education for the Ohio Department of Education, reported to the board Monday that recent federal legislation permits the use of vocational training funds for students in high school and for adult training and retraining programs.

One of the state's chief needs, Shoemaker said, is to develop comprehensive vocational programs which presently are available only in the largest city school systems. About 500 high schools offer vocational programs but most of these courses are quite limited, he said.

New federal legislation authorizes $2.6 million in added vocational funds for Ohio this year. Sharp increases are projected for in coming years, with theal location due to reach $9.5 million in 1967.

Starting next year, state matching funds will be required. That makes it possible that Ohio vocational programs will be getting $19 million more yearly by 1967 than at present.

While looking forward to the burgeoning of vocational education, the board faces the problem of a shriveling state educational film and slide service to schools.

State School Supt. E. E. Holt told the board that the Department of Education may have to end the visual-aid service for lack of funds. The only way the program, once the largest of its kind anywhere, might continue is if school districts are willing to use local funds to pay rental charges, Holt said.

Asst. State Supt. W. Dwight Darling reported that 57 school districts have applied for emergency school building aid with requests totaling $27.76 million. Darling noted that only $10 million will be available from the recently approved $250 million state bond issue as an initial allocation. He said state officials will visit the school districts seeking help and set up a priority listing.

In other actions, the State Board:

— Took first steps to revoke the charters of Auglaize Rural and Beaverdam high schools in Allen County, effective June 30, 1965, on grounds of violating minimum educational standards.

— Authorized the Department

LBJ Proposal Locked In Committee

Slim Chance Seen For Medical Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's main health proposal, enactment of a care plan for the elderly under Social Security, appeared to be locked out in the House Ways and Means Committee. Its predecessors have been locked there for years.

The committee plans sessions on the measure, perhaps as early as the first week of March but there was no sign that more than 12 of the 25 members' votes could be gained to send it to the House.

Friends and foes of the plan agreed its only chance—and a slim one—was that a compromise acceptable to Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., can be worked out.

However, another recommendation Johnson made in a special message to Congress Monday—a five-year extension and broadening of the program for federal help in building hospitals—had brighter prospects.

Chairman Oren Harris, D-Ark., of the House Commerce Committee, which handles hospital aid legislation, said "indeed we will" have hearings soon.

"We have to move fast because the present authorization expires June 30," Harris said.

Rep. Carl Albert of Oklahoma, House Democratic leader, said he thinks the hospital program stands an excellent chance of enactment this year as it has "always been a popular program in Congress."

Johnson did not spell out his proposal for medical insurance for the elderly under Social Security financing. He presumably wants a program like the one the late President John F. Kennedy sought, which is embodied in the King-Anderson bill.

The bill calls for a guarantee of hospital, nursing home and some outpatient services to those over 65. The Social Security pay roll tax would be increased by one-quarter of 1 percent each on employers and employees and its coverage broadened from $4,800 of earnings to $5,200. For aged outside the Social Security System, general appropriations would pay the way.

Glenn Turner of Beloit Dies At 64

BELOIT — Glenn N. Turner, 64, of Main St., prominent Beloit citizen, died of a cerebral hemorrhage at 10:45 a.m. Monday at the Alliance City Hospital.

A member of the Methodist Church at Buford, Smith Grange, Beloit Ruritan club and Odd Fellows Lodge, he had been active in the Boy Scout movement 34 years.

Lisbon Council Studies Purchase of Meters

LISBON — Mayor Dean Stockman Monday night referred to Village Council's finance committee a proposal that the village purchase new parking meters to replace those installed 10 years ago.

Charles Lee, representative of the Rockwell Manufacturing Co. of Cincinnati, offered to sell the meters to the village at a cost of $43 per meter, paid at the rate of $1.25 per month for each device.

Lee told the lawmakers the average life of a meter was seven to 10 years. After that period, he said, the village would lose parking revenue because of meter malfunctions.

Council authorized purchase of a spreader from Howard Adams of Salineville for the village's new truck at a cost of $250.

Felix Butch was reappointed to the cemetery board by Mayor Stockman for a six-year

Backers Gird For Bitter Fight In Senate

Southerners Seek Compromises With Filibuster Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has approved the civil rights bill in an overwhelming vote hailed by President Johnson as "an historic step forward for the cause of dignity in America." It now faces a tougher battle in the Senate where Southerners hope to whittle it down with talk.

As turned out by the House in a 290-130 roll call Monday night, the bill amounts to the most sweeping civil rights legislation in history. Southern efforts to water it down were crushed at every turn by a coalition of Republicans and Northern Democrats.

Hold Filibuster Weapon

But in the Senate with its different rules of debate, the Southerners hold the weapon of a filibuster and hope to weaken the measure by forcing a compromise.

Girding for the battle ahead, Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield outlined parliamentary moves Monday designed to delay Senate action on civil rights until the tax cut bill clears Congress, probably by the end of the month.

Johnson, in a statement, paid tribute to the bipartisan nature of the triumph in the House, declaring:

"It represents the culmination of months of hard work by men of good will in both parties."

Task Now Before Senate

"Now the task is before the Senate. I hope the same spirit of nonpartisanship will prevail there to assure passage of this bill guaranteeing the fundamental rights of all Americans."

Voting for the bill in the House were 152 Democrats and 138 Republicans. Voting against it were 96 Democrats and 34 Republicans.

The bill is aimed at ending racial discrimination in employment, public accommodations, voting, schools and other public facilities, and in federally aided programs. A new section added just before passage would create a community relations service to mediate racial disputes.

City Tax For Last Quarter Up $1,866

Salem's city income tax collection for the last three months of 1963 was $1,866.82 above the total for the same period in 1962, Auditor Helen Coyne announced today.

The auditor reported collections of $41,197.83 from employers' withholding, $1,004.20 in business and corporation returns and $2,114.42 in individual returns, for a total of $44,316.45. The total for the final quarter of '62 was $42,449.63.

Individual returns are from self-employed persons or persons working for firms which do not withhold the tax.

Final returns for 1963 must be filed before April 15 to avoid a penalty, the auditor remarked.

Dust Bowls Sweep Vast Soviet Areas

MOSCOW (AP) — The dust bowls that plagued the United States in the 1930s have come to the Soviet Union, already beset by grain and meat shortages.

Agriculture Minister Ivan Volovchenko told the Communist party Central Committee Monday that about three million acres of arable land are abandoned each year in the Soviet Union.

"Wind and water erosion are inflicting tremendous damage on agriculture," he told a committee meeting in the Kremlin. "We must take all measures for the restoration and preservation of the fertility of eroded soil."

"In our opinion, it is necessary to adopt a special law which would provide for the strict accountability of all departments, organizations, collective and state farms for preserving soil riches and for the sensible use of agricultural land."

What Happened to Tax Reform?

By the time the late President Kennedy had sent his message on tax reform and reduction to Congress on Jan. 24, 1963, something drastic had happened to reform.

It had been subordinated to tax reduction — a thumping $13.6 reduction, offset by a piddling $3.4 to be gained back in reform. That hadn't been the idea of reform at all — that it would add revenue.

People who had been starry-eyed about reform were thinking of it in another way. They wanted the kind of reform that would get rid of inequities irritating them, not the kind that would get rid of loopholes irritating the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

What has happened to reform between the time it became good politics to talk about it in 1962 and the time it was hammered into legislation in 1964 is the story of the weakness and strength of government by compromise.

CONGRESS finally enacts into law not what is logical, equitable and sensible but what is possible after conflicting elements have clashed and learned which faction has the controlling votes.

Taxation becomes involved in politics — the art of the possible. The system works well in matters where the outcome is six of one and a half dozen of the other. Compromise is the best way to settle contests between parties that are half right or half wrong.

But in matters of principle, splitting the difference is like splitting the difference in a showdown on honesty. Where virtue is at issue there can be no difference-splitting.

There is difference-splitting, however, and that is why tax reform is needed. Tax legislation has been patched, doctored, plastered over and jerry-built so often that experts like Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., think it is an affront to logic and common sense.

IF REP. MILLS and experts like him could revise federal taxes according to logic and good judgment, they could reduce the federal income tax to a fraction of what it is now, with a substantial boost in productivity.

They could get rid of inequities that have been running sores for decades.

They could simplify the tax structure until there would be no market for the services of loophole locators; there would be no loopholes.

But it never can happen — not while taxation is in politics.

A new tax law now will be turned over to the mercies of administrators and courts, who will have to determine in the next four years what the politicians meant by their votes. It is not by any stretch of imagination a tax reform law, just a tax-cutting act.

There is no more reform in it than in a well-filled Christmas stocking on the morning of Dec. 25; i.e., or the eve of a national election.

Proper Planning

A suggested program of street improvement for next summer is currently being studied by a City Council committee.

The committee can be expected to give serious consideration to a priority program, as previously discussed by the administration and Council, so that specific jobs can be advertised early and contracts awarded by May in order to take advantage of more favorable summer work months.

This planning indicates a closer liaison between Council, the administration and the city engineer's office which is necessary for Salem's continued progress.

It's Boy Scout Week

Boy Scout uniforms are more in prominence this week as local and district boys join in the 54th anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America.

They are fortunate to be able to belong to an organization whose principles and training program help growing lads to become better, more useful citizens of tomorrow.

While the public joins in a mass salute to the scouts, we shouldn't overlook the men who serve as scoutmasters and in other adult leadership capacities, rendering a service to youth that is invaluable.

Hitting the Pipe

By Truman Twill

Eastman Kodak felt it had to lower the boom on a 19-year-old girl secretary who demanded the right to smoke a pipe on the job.

When the company said she had to confine her pipe-smoking to the ladies lounge, she did what any normal pipe-smoking American girl would do. She quit.

"If this is the price you pay for standing up for what you believe," she said, "it's got to be that way."

The girl's name is Christine Schmal. We are pleased to make her acquaintance. If she will load up the old pipe, stick her feet up on the desk and start puffing, here are some things she should know about pipe-smoking among women.

It is a throwback to pioneer days.

OLD WOMEN used to hit the pipe when their days of usefulness were over. They would sit on the porches of their shacks and puff, puff, puff.

They held the pipes in their hands, incidentally, because none had any teeth left to clamp the bit. That was, why pipe-smoking was their prerogative. They were over the hill.

During the active years of their lives, they couldn't pitch hay, milk cows, churn butter, hoe the garden and get over the ground in all directions with pipes clenched in their teeth — and they never had time to sit down. Sitting down to smoke was the prerogative of men.

But when the old gals ran out of gas and had nothing to do but sit in chimney corners all winter and on porches all summer mer no one minded if they smoked. It had to be a pipe, because men wouldn't have thought of sharing cigars with womenfolk. Cigarettes were unknown.

Not all the old gals smoked. Some chewed. Many used snuff. And is that what we're coming to next?

ARE THINGS going to come full cycle and bring spittoons back to business offices, with girl secretaries taking dead aim at the crock and making the welkin ring — boooing?

This has been something to think about ever since the U. S. surgeon general's group confirmed what they'd been telling us ever since cigarettes were made fashionable by Alice Roosevelt Longworth and World War I — that the things could kill us if we didn't watch out.

Is the safest way to use tobacco — non-bustible chewing — on the way back?

Will a girl secretary stalk out one of these days because an uppity boss said she should chop the weed on her own time, out of sight, out of mind and out of range?

Don't bet it won't happen. Girls will be girls.

You should have seen Gramma drench an unwary fly on the porch railing, or an over-bold cockroach scouting for crumbs on the tin mat beneath the pot-bellied stove in the family kitchen.

Pot-toole! You should try it, girls. It's hilarious.

Gloomy News For American Barbers—It's Contagious

U.S.'s Image Fading

By DAVID LAWRENCE
There is a growing feeling among many members of Congress that the United States is being pushed around in the David Lawrence interpreted abroad as a sign of weakness and irresolution.

The mere fact that Fidel Castro thought he could taunt the United States by denying water to the Guantanamo Naval Base is a sign of the belligerency that has been developing. It results perhaps from a feeling that under no circumstances will this country invade Cuba.

The United States naval base in Cuba—granted by a treaty which even the Castro government has not dared to abrogate—can obtain a supply of water from sources other than Cuba itself, but this doesn't erase the significance of Castro's action, bolstered as he is by the knowledge that he has an ally in Moscow.

The United States under the Kennedy administration took a firm position in demanding the removal of the Soviet missiles, but did not follow it up by insisting upon a fulfillment of the conditions originally laid down. There never has been any opportunity given for absolute verification to see whether weapons of various kinds hidden in Cuba could be used against the people of the United States.

THE UNITED STATES has not considered severing diplomatic relations with Moscow, nor has it insisted upon a cessation of Soviet activities in this hemisphere.

There have been denunciations of Communist subversion and of Castro's activity in various Latin-American countries, but the United States has not shown any willingness to use its own strength to solve the problem. Instead, there has been a tendency to leave it to the Organization of American States and to a prolonged palaver. The theory is that this is a better way to maintain friendship with other Latin-American countries.

But gradually respect for the United States government itself diminishes when it fails to stand up for its own rights.

Even in Latin-American countries there were prominent persons who felt last year that the United States had not handled the Cuban problem effectively when it did not achieve the right of inspection, even by the United Nations, to determine whether the missiles had actually been removed.

Throughout Latin America, since October 1962 more and more hostilities to this country have been stirred up. Even a little nation like Panama dared to take a chance and antagonize the United States, perhaps knowing that it would get a good deal of sympathy in other Latin-American countries because malcontents there could be depended upon to stimulate demonstrations against the Washington administration.

UNDER SUCH circumstances, the United States now can hardly ignore the challenge which Castro has flung. To face up to it is as important as the demand in 1962 that the missiles be removed. Sooner or later a decision has to be proclaimed that Castro not only must respect the treaty rights of the United States in the naval base at Guantanamo but must stop infiltrating Latin-American countries and respect the sovereign rights of other nations.

Even more important at the moment is the attitude that the countries in Western Europe have taken toward Cuba. First the British, and now the French, have agreed to supply Castro with buses for his internal transportation needs.

It's argued that these are not part of any war apparatus. But the shipments do constitute in the aggregate an affront to the United States, which has been trying to isolate Cuba on the economic side.

If the Western Allies cannot show any more solidarity than they have concerning Cuba, then it is time perhaps for America to determine how much it can afford to do hereafter with its military forces to support governments in Europe that refuse to reciprocate by supporting the policies of the United States in this hemisphere.

Much of the blame for the attitude of France and Great Britain rests, however, upon the administration in Washington, because a few weeks ago it agreed to the sale of American wheat to the Soviets.

THE MOMENT that deal was announced and it was revealed that the government here would actually help finance these transactions, the lid was off in Europe.

The commercial spirit gained ascendancy in France and England, just as it had in the United States with respect to the sale of wheat to the Communists.

These blunders can be rectified only by adhering to a policy of economic blockade and insisting that, if other nations attempt to break it, a naval blockade will be established. This is the only language that the Russians understand and that Castro understands. Such a move also would have a salutary effect on the attitude of Western Europe.

Hoffa, Baker Trails Cross

By VICTOR RIESEL

More and more the trails of Bobby Baker, former power in the U.S. Senate, and Jimmy Hoffa's Teamsters cross each other.

Victor Riesel is a close friend of Hoffa as his labor relations consultant in California. This buddy of Hoffa's is Mike Singer—a man accused by Sen. McClellan at a congressional hearing of being a shakedown artist—who for years was the Teamster chief's personal envoy to the West Coast.

Singer still is on the Serv-U payroll, though his record is a grim one. He was hired by that company's Los Angeles head quarters, despite his career as a tough-talking, picket - happy arrogant organizer in the Teamsters' union.

For some years, at Hoffa's direction, he ruled as business agent of Local 626, Los Angeles Meat and Provision Drivers' Union.

THERE ARE documents in the U.S. Senate files which disclose that this free-spending friend of Hoffa's felt so tough that he once called together some Los Angeles merchants and unionists in the grease rendering field to give a series of price-fixing directives. A witness appearing before the McClellan racket probe committee testified later that Singer said he knew these orders were against the law.

Singer, according to the witness, said at that meeting in the union hall: "You could go to the McClellan Committee and you can go to the Department of Justice and you can go to the Los Angeles Police Department and you can go to the Los Angeles Sheriff's Department and it won't do you any good, and the union has plenty of money and we would fight it."

The man Serv-U hired as a labor relations expert first arrived on the West Coast in the late '50s under orders from Jimmy Hoffa. Not too long afterwards some friends gave him a testimonial dinner in Los Angeles.

Some 400 persons not all of them ecstatic over spending $25 apiece for snub, turned out. Star speaker of the evening was none other than Hoffa, who made a special cross-country run to eulogize his business agent.

FOR HOFFA and Singer it was a gay affair. The Teamsters' president spoke highly of the man, Singer, who he had previously used as an organizer in Puerto Rico and later in Hawaii.

Hoffa applauded heartily when a car was presented as a gift to Singer, who appeared as surprised as if Al Capone had just walked up to the dais. However, the Senate record reveals that Singer had been driving the same car for weeks—and two businessmen testified that they had been forced to contribute $1,000 each for its purchase. They said they felt they would be put out of business if they did not contribute to the testimonial.

Also in the Senate hearings are statements to the effect that no one seemed to know what happened to the profits from the dinner — a "slight" matter of $8,000 or $9,000.

THE EVIDENCE goes on to reveal that Singer did right well while business agent of the tiny union of 250 men. He drew a salary, traveling expenses and car allowances, which are far more fascinating than they sound. In one month alone he rolled up $826.42 worth of gas and minor repair bills. He traveled quite extensively, including trips into the heart of Texas and Mexico, at the union's expense.

When he was put on the witness stand by Sen. McClellan, Singer refused to state his business or to reveal what his income was from the union and outside sources.

All of this so angered Sen. McClellan that he told the committee:

"I think the American people, the small businessmen, particularly in this country, and the public generally, have to wake up to this danger, to this challenge to law and order and decency, decent society, in this country."

"There is an element of thugs, hoodlums and crooks, mugs and scoundrels that are trying to take over the economy of this country."

Then, further addressing himself to a witness who had told of Singer's activities, McClellan added:

"This, as you have demonstrated here this morning by your testimony, is characteristic of their tactics and their strategy, and their procedure, that disregards all respectful human relationships and simply makes an extortion and shakedown racket out of business relationships and out of what ought to be decent unionism in this country."

Ann Landers Answers

Dear Ann Landers: I didn't care for your smart-aleck remarks about boys who are named Shirley. A dear friend of mine had a son named Shirley. I admired the boy a great deal. He was the type of young man every mother wants her son to be. So, when the Lord blessed us with a boy I named him Shirley. That was 40 years ago.

Our son Shirley never had to fight his way through school or anywhere else. In fact I can't recall that he was ever in a fight.

For your information, Ann Landers, there were very few girls named Shirley until Shirley Temple came along, about 35 years ago. Before that time there were more male Shirleys than female. I think you owe all the male Shirleys an apology.—PLAIN JANE.

Dear Plain: I didn't realize there were so many male Shirleys around until that letter appeared in print. The Shirleys didn't write to me— their mothers did. Thanks to all of you.

Teetotler Parties

Dear Ann: May I be your just a moment and respond to "Firm Believer", the couple who have never served liquor in their home because it is against their religious teaching? They feared since they were moving to a new city and would be traveling with a faster set this practice might hurt them in business.

My husband and I have been married more than 20 years. We have entertained nationally known figures in politics, education, medicine, law, religion and business. We never have served liquor in our home and our parties are fabulously successful.

Why? Because what makes a really great evening is stimulating conversation, good food and warm friendship. When these three ingredients are present no one misses alcohol. Only when the hostess has failed must she turn to the liquor cabinet for help. — FIRM BELIEVER No. 2.

Dear Firm: Welcome to my corner, friend. I've never bought the idea that liquor is a must at a party. I've seen too many evening ruined because nice people got drunk and became unruly, maudlin, belligerent, foolish, sloppy, amorous, sick, insulting and just plain stupefied.

It's bad enough when this happens to ordinary folks but when it happens to brilliant, lovely people, it is truly pathetic.

Wedding Upsetting

Dear Ann: When our eldest daughter became engaged she informed us that she wanted to be married in the home of her fiancé's parents. My husband and I wanted Marge to be married in her own home, but we were unable to persuade her to change her mind.

When she said, "Their home is nicer than ours and I want as beautiful a setting as I can have," we had nothing more to say.

Now, our second daughter is planning to do the same thing. She will be engaged in February and already she's talking about coming down the spiral staircase in the Smith home.

We are not paupers, Ann. Our home is lovely, and we can afford to have a beautiful wedding. We paid for the first wedding and we plan to pay for the second one as well. We just don't want to be asked to go to someone else's house again.

Are we wrong?—MOM AND DAD.

Dear Mom and Dad: Your daughter should respect your wishes—even if you lived in a puppet.

It's too bad you let No. 1 get away with it. Now I hope you have better luck with No. 2.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT

Enzyme Balance Is Necessary

We all know what it means when we lose our balance. But what happens when we lose our enzyme balance?

Dr. Brandstadt

Several hundred enzymes control thousands of reactions in the human body, so any enzyme imbalance of one type or another is not to be wondered at. Each enzyme has a specific task to perform and, when the body fails to manufacture any one of them, some function is impaired.

Only a few enzymes have been reproduced in the laboratory. All of them are classified as proteins and hundreds still remain to be discovered.

THE ENZYMES in the digestive tract have been known for decades. Those in the saliva convert starch into simple sugars; stomach enzymes turn milk into curds and break down proteins into simpler compounds, and those in the pancreas break down proteins and fats into substances that can be absorbed into the blood.

Insulin from the pancreas is not released into the digestive tract but directly into the blood. This and other internally secreted enzymes are called hormones.

YOUR DOCTOR can use enzymes as an aid to diagnosis or as a form of treatment. For example an enzyme manufactured by germs so they can resist penicillin can be used to treat a person who is having an allergic reaction to that drug.

Some scientists believe that every disease in the catalogue is due to some form of enzyme imbalance and that time will unravel the mysteries.

—Is it true that honey is less harmful to the teeth than other forms of sugar? How important is it to limit a child's intake of sugar for the sake of his teeth?

A—Honey would affect the teeth in the same way as sugar. Children should eat a balanced diet but they need proportionately more sugar than adults because they use up so much energy. In order to protect their teeth you should give them sweets only at mealtime and have them brush their teeth after every meal or snack.

Big Man, Big Dream

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Ely A. Landau, 44, is a big man with a big dream.

The thick-set film producer, little known to the public, has become something of a landmark in the entertainment world in recent years.

His dream? "In 1946 about 80 million people went to the movies each week," he said. "By 1962 the figure had fallen to 42½ million a week. I wanted to do something to help recover that vast lost audience."

First, let's have a little background on Landau.

"My life is a rags to tatters story," he said, but it isn't at all.

Landau, son of a waiter, was born on the Lower East Side of New York and went to work after graduating from high school.

"I went from store to store selling flavors, extracts—anything a fellow could do to try and find himself."

During World War II he spent four years in the Air Transport Command, emerged as a sergeant, then tried to become corn-chip king of the metropolitan area. He didn't.

"I picked the wrong brand of corn chips," he recalled.

After a brief period with an advertising agency, Landau raised a couple of thousand dollars to form a pioneering company in film syndication for television.

In a few years the company owned three television stations, was producing 20 film or tape series, and was doing an annual business of $25 million.

In 1959, the firm which Landau had founded for $2,000 only five years before was sold by him and other shareholders for $14 million.

Landau then invaded the film field, bought two small movie houses in Manhattan, and plans to produce 10 pictures over a three-year period.

Those who feel that Hollywood has become tradition-bound and out of touch with modern-day audiences find a ready ally in Landau.

"There is no greater wasteland in the entertainment world today than the movie wasteland," he said.

The answer, he feels, lies in $700,000 to $900,000 quality pictures with an adult appeal. To him the industry's reliance on $20-million to $30-million blockbuster epics is "a form of Russian roulette."

tain to reject the plan, unless the proposed force was placed under Security Council control. Makarios was said to have conferred with advisers on the best way to bring the Cyprus issue before the Security Council.

A British force has been trying to keep the peace between Turkish and Greek Cypriots, engaged in bloody clashes since last December. The United States and other Atlantic alliance nations would contribute soldiers to the peace force under the U.S.-British plan.

To meet Greek Cypriot objections, London and Washington agreed to some sort of link between the United Nations and the peace force, but have refused to consider Security Council control of it.

The clash between police and students erupted after Mayor Angelos Tsoukalas of Athens told a rally the Cyprus issue should be decided by residents of the island where Greek Cypriots outnumber Turkish Cypriots 4 to 1.

Student crowds, calling for union with Greece, hoisted placards reading: "We are ready for sacrifices, give us arms."

Chiang Breaks Ties With De Gaulle

PARIS (AP) — Nationalist China's decision to break relations with France took President Charles de Gaulle off a diplomatic hook today.

De Gaulle's reported hope of re-establishing French influence in Southeast Asia hinged on his decision last month to recognize Red China. And Red China was dragging its feet until ties were severed between France and the Nationalists.

At his news conference Jan. 31, De Gaulle said he recognized Red China as the government of the mainland, Nationalist China as the government of Formosa.

The decision by Taipei appeared to be exactly what De Gaulle wanted. It saved him from the embarrassment of cutting ties with his old friend, President Chiang Kai-shek.

There was no immediate public reaction from French officials, who recently had indicated France was preparing to initiate the break itself.

Only 24 hours after France and Communist China announced Jan. 27 their intention to exchange ambassadors, Peking made a public demand for France to break relations with Formosa.

No public move was made by either France or Communist China to start their new relationship rolling with an exchange of charge d'affaires.

Suddenly, France notified Taipei that charge d'affaires would be exchanged and Taipei broke relations.

only other bidder was the Wells-ville Publishing Co. which asked $6,541.58.

Clerk Frank O'Hanlon said the cost was reduced because the names of delegates and alternates to the two national conventions will not be rotated as is done on the office-type ballots.

The Columbus Blank Book Co. was given the contract to furnish pollbooks for both the May primaries and the November general election on its bid of $24.25 per precinct for each election.

Herr Printing Co. of Columbus asked $25.35 per precinct and the Johnson-Watson Co. of Columbus bid $25.55. The board awarded ballot places to 122 candidates as Republican precinct committeemen and 163 Democrats.

Rea Loses Township Bid

It accepted the withdrawal of Mollie Wilson as a Democratic candidate in Precinct 2-G in East Liverpool and rejected the petition of a Republican candidate in Salem Township.

Ernest Wayne Rea of the Lisbon Rd. had filed for the GOP precinct post in the Northeast precinct of Salem Township and the five signers of his petition listed their address as the Northeast precinct.

However, a check showed that Rea and the petition signers all reside in the Franklin Square precinct of the same township, O'Hanlon explained.

Ballot places also were granted 22 Republican and 22 Democratic candidates for county and district offices, including the unopposed 18th District delegates and alternates to the two national conventions.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown is expected to certify the names of delegates-at-large about Feb. 20. It will include 82 delegates and 51 alternates to the Democratic convention and 12 delegates and 12 alternates to the GOP session.

Observance Of Library Week Planned

Walter Deming, president of the board of trustees of the Salem Public Library, appointed a committee Monday to make plans for an observance of National Library Week in April. Named were Mrs. Guy Byers, Beman Ludwig and Miss Nellie Glass, librarian.

Also discussed by the board were proposals for repairing a leaky section of the library roof, and the use of volunteer help in the library.

Miss Glass said volunteer workers are needed to relieve the regular staff. Among services they may perform are assisting in the continuing inventory of books and clearing records in the culling project underway in the reserve collection in the auditorium.

The large number of mutilated books returned to the library is of concern to the board. They requested book users to call attention to any defacement of books. The damaged volumes will be provided with a label explaining the Ohio statute concerning book mutilation. A violator is subject to a stiff fine.

Miss Glass reported a total January circulation of 14,139, including 5,783 adult books and 8,356 juvenile. A total of 259 books was added last month, bringing the number of volumes to 50,005.

The librarian said 258 persons registered at the library in January, including 175 adults and 83 juveniles. Total registration is now 7,614.

Beloit Gets Aid Pledge On Sewer Project

BELOIT — Congressman Michael Kirwan has informed Council that he will "do the best he can" in helping to obtain federal funds for planning a sewage disposal system and installing sidewalks.

Letters from the congressman to this effect were read at Council meeting Monday night after Lawrence Shaver was sworn in as new councilman to fill the seat of Mayor William Eshelman, a former councilman.

The group was earlier advised that funds from the federal public works program currently were unavailable but Council is seeking a loan for planning the sewerage project.

Council voted to abandon the 19-acre tract at the Berlin Reservoir as a scout camp. Beloit scouts have been using the site in the bay near Hartzell's Cemetery for some 12 years, first under lease from the federal government, then under a licensing system.

The license set-up made Beloit village liable for any damage to the property the past two years. Council felt this risk was too great and agreed to return the license to the U. S. Army Engineers in Pittsburgh, who administered the agreement.

The second reading was given to ordinances to increase the wages of street maintenance workers and enabling the employment of James Williams as solicitor.

An insurance policy was taken out on police chief Charles Roose protecting him against false arrest. The move stemmed from legal action brought against a Columbiana County law enforcement official by a motorist claiming false arrest.

Council discussed flasher lights to be erected at either end of the high school grounds but took no action.

But he added that "certification probably would be made unless court action was taken by a taxpayer."

He said that if there is no court action, he was certifying Glenn's petitions in time for certification of the Ballots on Feb. 20.

Bradds Sets
Arena RecordTallies 49 Points,
Beats Lucas' Mark

By The Associated Press
The sportswriting fraternity ran out of adjectives to describe Jerry Lucas before he wound up his three-time All-America basketball career at Ohio State. What's more, they figured no one could fill his shoes.

Now there aren't any adjectives left that haven't been used in praise of Gary Bradds—the man who filled Lucas' shoes as his immediate successor at Ohio State and on the All-America team.

Lean Gary, carrying the Buckeyes on his shoulders so well they are just a game behind Michigan in the Big Ten race, scored 49 points in Monday night's 110-92 St. John Arena rout of Illinois.

The 49 bettered the all-time Buck record of 48 set by Lucas and equaled by Bradds during his current fantastic streak in which he has corralled 47, 48, 42, 40 and 49 points in successive games.

"Tex" had 27 in the first half as the Bucks rolled to a 57-40 lead. And he accomplished what seemed inevitable based on the way he's been going, set the school record, with 2:39 to go. Coach Fred Taylor removed him right there, with the game in the bag and the Illini tide hopes virtually squelched (3-3) while Ohio State at 6-2 closed in on Michigan's 7-1.

In other Ohio college games Monday night, Cincinnati nipped host Houston in overtime, 66-59. Steubenville lost 60-55 to Pan American's 1963 NAIA titlist; Marietta overwhelmed Waynesburg on the Pennsylvania's floor 104-85; Wilberforce took it on the chin 111-74 at Lincoln (Mo.); Central State beat Cedarville 73-56; and Youngstown nipped Alliance (Pa.) 70-67.

Cincinnati's Dave Cosby grabbed a rebound, pivoted and scored with two seconds left to give the Bearcats a 56-56 regulation tie at Houston. Then Ron Bonham scored five points in the extra period that proved decisive. Bonham scored 20 and George Wilson 25.

Crestview Meets Lowellville In Lid-Lifter

Leetonia Bears Seeded No.1
For Class A Sectional Event

Leetonia, 5-11, on the basis of playing a tougher schedule, was seeded number one and drew a bye during the Class A Sectional basketball pairings at Lowellville High School Monday night.

Crestview with the best record, a season mark of 10-7, will take on Lowellville, 8-8, in the lid-lifter at Struthers Field House, Feb. 19 at 7:30 p.m.

Greenford, winless in 17 contests so far, will battle Western Reserve, 7-9, at 9 p.m.

North Lima (6-10) also drew a bye and won't see action until Feb. 21 at 7:30 p.m. The Bears will play their first game at 9 p.m. the same night.

Coach Len Batcha has led the Bears to victories against the only Class A schools they have met. Leetonia knocked off Greenford 59-42, and Crestview 50-39 during the campaign.

All the other teams on Leetonia's schedule have been Class AA.

Paul Johnson of Lowellville is directing the annual event. Officials for the tourney are to be selected by the district board.

Doors will open an hour before game time. Tickets are priced at one dollar for adults, and 50 cents for students.

The sectional winner will advance to the Class A District Tournament at Canton scheduled to get under way March 2.

Unbeaten UCLA Keeps Top Spot
In AP Poll; Davidson Now 4th

By The Associated Press
The UCLA Bruins, bombing along unbeaten, remain atop the weekly Associated Press basketball poll virtually without challenge.

The Bruins, the only major college basketball team still unbeaten, polled all but two of the 35 first place ballots cast Monday by a special panel of sportswriters and sportscasters throughout the nation.

Mighty Michigan and on-rushing Kentucky remained in the second and third place slots but most of the other teams in the select crew were shaken up in the weekly voting.

The biggest changes involved defending national champion Chicago Loyola, which dropped out of the Top Ten, and Oregon State, unranked a week ago and now No. 9.

Loyola lost both outings last week, 65-60 to Wichita and 71-69 to St. John's of New York. Oregon State improved its record to 20-3 with a pair of victories over Portland, 97-68 and 95-61.

UCLA, 19-0 for the season, beat California twice, 87-67 and 58-56, and gained 347 points in the poll on the basis of 10 for first, nine for second, eight for third and so on.

Michigan, 16-2, got 298 points, including its first place ballot, despite an early week 86-85 setback by Ohio State. Kentucky, 17-2 through the weekend, was a close third with 282 points.

Davidson beat Georgia Southern and William and Mary and moved up one notch to fourth while Duke, which gained the only other first place vote jumped two places to fifth. Davidson is 18-1 and Duke beat

North Carolina State and Maryland for a 15-3 mark through the weekend.

Wichita and Villanova, each an upset victim, each dropped two places. Wichita fell to sixth after losing to Bradley 76-74 and Villanova slipped to eighth after losing to LaSalle 63-59.

Vanderbilt, which scored over Alabama, Tulane and Louisiana State, moved up one to seventh, Oregon State took over ninth and DePaul is 10th.

The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses, season records through Saturday, Feb. 8 and points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

	W. L.	Pts.
1. UCLA (33)	19	0 347
2. Michigan (1)	16	2 286
3. Kentucky	17	2 282
4. Davidson	18	1 219
5. Duke (1)	15	3 181
6. Wichita	17	4 158

Roberts Anxiously Awaits
Season To Start, Inks Pact

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE (AP) — Robin Roberts, the old pro with the enthusiasm of a rookie, can't wait for the start of his 17th major league baseball season.

"I feel fine, and am looking forward to pitching again this year," Roberts said after the Baltimore Orioles announced the 37-year-old right-hander had signed his 1964 contract.

Roberts is believed to have signed for an estimated $30,000, the same salary he received last year when he turned in a 14-13 record for the Orioles. Although it was the highest victory total since he won 15 for the Philadelphia Phillies in 1959, Roberts wasn't satisfied.

"I want to do better than I did last year," Robin said in a telephone interview from his home in Meadowbrook, Pa. "I pitched well enough to keep on pitching, but I wasn't really excited about my performance."

"I thought we should have done better last year," he said. "I thought we had an outstanding ball club, but we weren't as consistent as we should have been."

Roberts said he feels stronger now than he has for some time—explaining that during his last couple of seasons at Philadelphia he "acquired a lot of aches trying so hard."

After winning only one game in 1961, Roberts captured 24 decisions during the past two seasons to increase his lifetime major league total to 258. He ranks second to Milwaukee's Warren Spahn among active hurlers, and is rated as a threat to reach the 300 mark.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Three Ohioans finished among the leaders in the Auto Racing Club of America's 250-mile championship at Daytona International Speedway won Sunday by a former Ohioan.

The champ, Nelson Stacy of Daytona Beach, formerly lived in Hamilton, Ohio. His 154.103-mile-an-hour pace in a 1964 Ford won him $4,200. Jim Cushman of Columbus was fifth in a '64 Plymouth for $800, Mike Klapach of Warren eighth in a '64 Ford for $450 and Jack Bowsher of Springfield ninth in a '64 Ford for $400.

Dayton Belmont Replaces McKinley
For Top Spot In AP Cage Survey

By FRITZ HOWELL

Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Back in 1940, in the semi-finals of the state high school basketball tournament, Canton McKinley handed Massillon its most humiliating defeat—and the Tigers are still getting revenge for it.

McKinley, riding a 15-game winning streak and firmly entrenched in first place in the Associated Press poll, fell 63-62 Friday to the Tigers, who overcame a 10-point last-period deficit.

The setback dumped the Bulldogs to second place in the ratings, and Dayton Belmont took over the lead. Massillon, known more for its gridiron glory than for hardwood heroics, vaulted all the way from 10th to third place in the biggest single-week jump a team has made in years.

Massillon has lost three by a total of five points—one a single pointer to McKinley.

McKinley Lost In 1937

In 1937, in the state meet, Massillon whipped McKinley 33-28 in the semifinals and then dropped the championship to Hamilton's Big Blue 37-32. Three years later the Stark County rivals met again in the semifinals, and Coach Paul Brown and his Tigers were blanked in the first quarter and were behind 28-3 at the half—without a field goal.

It wound up 46-14, the Bulldogs pouring it on in the afternoon tilt to such an extent that they weren't up to par in the evening's finale, which they dropped to New Philadelphia 30-22. It was one of McKinley's 5 futile trips to the championship game.

The 14 points allowed Massillon by McKinley was the lowest anyone could remember since East Liverpool beat Bowling Green 10-2 in one of the 1923

Newark, after losing the opener, has won 14 straight along with the North Central League title. Findlay, once a power in scholastic cage circles, won its first three games but has dropped the last 14.

Postoria Wins 15th In Row
Postoria made it 15 in a row in a weird double-overtime 65-63 clash with Toledo Whitmer.

Trailing 57-55 with three seconds to go, Joe Ferrante dropped a 55-foot shot through the nets to tie it. In the first overtime Postoria took a 61-57 edge—but compete at Struthers Field House and a like number at Youngstown South Field House.

The tournament at South will be held Feb. 17-18-19-21-25-27-29. Struthers' event will be staged Feb. 17-18-20-22-24-26-28.

Other schools entered and their records include Boardman 15-2; Springfield, 14-2; Brookfield, 13-3; Poland, 13-3; Lisbon, 13-3; Chaney, 12-4; North, 11-5; Woodrow Wilson, 11-6; Cardinal Mooney, 10-6; Howland, 10-6; Campbell, 10-7; South, 9-6; Lakeview, 9-7; Badger, 9-8; Jackson-Milton, 8-8; Champion, 8-8; Hubbard, 7-9; Newton Falls, 7-9; Canfield, 7-10; Struthers, 6-10; Niles, 5-11; East Palestine, 5-11; Girard, 5-12; Leavittsburg, 5-12; Warren St. Mary's, 4-11; Rayen 4-13; and Ursuline, 3-12.

The tournament will commence play Feb. 17, with a total of 17 teams scheduled to games—and Brown and Massillon never forgot. But Friday's triumph assuaged their quarter-century old grief to some extent. It marked the fifth time the current Tiger mentor, Nick Vrotos, has halted McKinley victory strings. Last week Massillon stopped New Philadelphia 10-game streak.

All Positions Are Changed
The current Class AA elite list is the same as last week's—but Massillon's conquest upset things to such an extent that not one team kept its old position.

In Class A, Celina Immaculate Conception continued to pace the pack, with Zanesville Rosecrans as the top challenger. Last week's top five retained their spots but the lower bracket shifted somewhat although no new teams won their way into the top Ten.

From here and there:
Big Steve Peayitt, 200 pounds and 6 foot-5, scored 53 points in Brilliant's 114-59 victory over Wayne. Steubenville's Big Red, which handed West Virginia's to ranked Weirton its lone defeat (69-65) early in the campaign, lost the return match 64-60 before 5,200 fans. Coach Walt Owens' Steubenville team is now 12-3.

Newark, after losing the opener, has won 14 straight along with the North Central League title. Findlay, once a power in scholastic cage circles, won its first three games but has dropped the last 14.

Meeting To Be Held In Youngstown

34 Area Cage Coaches To Attend AA Pairings Tonight

For the first time in several years, Salem won't be one of the top seeded teams when 34 area basketball coaches meet at John Knox Church in Youngstown tonight for the annual Class AA sectional drawings.

Four teams moved up to AA scholastic status this year and have been added to the list. The new group includes Springfield Local, Jackson-Milton, Badger and Warren St. Mary's.

Liberty of Trumbull County is unbeaten in 17 games so far and will probably be top seeded. Salem, Fitch and Austintown are at the bottom of the list with identical 2-14 records.

Warren, 11-5, rates as one of the tourney favorites.

The tournament will commence play Feb. 17, with a total of 17 teams scheduled to kept right on shooting as Coach Fred Wilch tore his hair on the bench. Whitmer tied it, and missed two free throws in the last 13 seconds to let it go into the second overtime. This time Fostoria jumped ahead 65-61 and went into a belated stall to win by two points.

Holgate scored 42 points in the first quarter and benched the first team, but the scrubs kept right on for a 110-60 victory over Florida. Portsmouth's Trojans (12-2) took an 82-79 overtime verdict over Huntington—eighth ranked in West Virginia—as Larry Hisle scored 32. He came back the next night for 23 in the 88-76 nod over Columbus Central.

Coach Dave Larimer's Frankfort boys did it in half-dozen lots. They won the first six, lost the next six and won the next six to finish with 12-6.

Mansfield leads the Buckeye Conference with a 10-3 mark. Lorain Admiral King, Elyria and Fremont Ross are a game back at 9-4. Ames-Bern, the Athens County League champ, finished with 18-2. The losses were to Racine and Fort Frye, fourth and fifth in the Class A ratings.

Brian Wolf, Youngstown Liberty's 6-6 senior, is averaging 24 points for the club's 17-game winning streak.

THE DEPENDABLES: SUCCESS CARS OF '64

The fuel is regular. The performance is premium.

Premium performance doesn't cost a nickel extra in a '64 Dodge. Because under that handsome hood lurks the largest standard engine in the low-price field (318 cu. in. V8). It doesn't cost you extra at the gas pump, either! Regular grade fuel suits it just fine.

Dodge is as luxurious as it is lively. The Polara 2-door hardtop above, for instance, features a rich saddle-grain vinyl interior, a comfort-providing flip-down center armrest, foam seat padding, and thick wall-to-wall carpeting—all standard equipment. Yet it's priced right with comparable models of Ford and Chevrolet.

In all, there are twenty-two Dodge models to choose from. In the trade that sent Ed Rakov and Dave Wickersham to the Tigers. He has recuperated from an arm operation and is ready to go.

We should improve our catching as Doc Edwards has the makings of a good receiver. And he needs it work and experience. Charley Lau gives us a good back-up man.

We are not thinking in terms of a pennant, of course, but we are hopeful of moving up a couple of notches. A great deal, of course, depends upon Colapinto and Gentile.

Youth today must be strong, unafraid and a better taxpayer than its father.—Changing Times.

Which reminds us that it is tax time and if you need help on your tax return, bring it in to our tax expert and he will fill it out for you at a very reasonable price. Remember if the government owes you money, the faster you get your return in, the quicker you will get the refund, and if you owe the government, most persons do not have to pay until April 15th.

Greatest Fear During Cuban Crisis

Children's Deaths In A-War Haunted JFK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The was John F. Kennedy's greatest specter of a nuclear war snuffing out the lives of children — crisis, his brother has disclosed. "who had no part and knew nothing of the confrontation" — Kennedy said in a new foreword to the late president's book "Profiles in Courage" that he and his brother recognized the possibility of being killed but this "seemed so unimportant, almost frivolous."

"The one matter which really was of concern to him and truly had meaning and made that time much more fearful than it would otherwise have been," said the attorney general, "was the specter of death of the children of this country and around the world — the young people who had no part and knew nothing of the confrontation, but whose lives would be snuffed out like everyone else's."

"They would never have been given a chance to make a decision, to vote in an election, to run for office, to lead a revolution, to determine their own destinies," Kennedy added.

The late president wrote the Pulitzer Prize-winning "Profiles in Courage" when hospitalized in 1954-55 with a critical recurrence of his wartime back injury. A new edition of the book was published today by Harper & Row. The text of Kennedy's foreword is in the current Look magazine.

The attorney general finished writing it Dec. 18 — 26 days after the president was assassinated. In effect it, too, is a profile of courage.

"President Kennedy would be 47 in May of 1964," writes the attorney general. "At least one half of the days that he spent on this earth were days of intense physical pain. He had diphtheria when he was young, serious back trouble when he was older. In between, he had almost every other conceivable ailment."

But Kennedy says he never heard his brother complain, "never heard him say anything which would indicate that he felt that God had dealt with him unjustly."

"Those who knew him well would know he was suffering only because his face was a little whiter, the lines around his eyes were a little deeper, his words a little sharper. Those who did not know him well detected nothing."

Mrs. Oswald Continues Testimony

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Marguerite Oswald looked folksy and comfortable, a grandmotherly type in horn-rimmed spectacles.

She had a smile for the cameras and a statement ready for the press, but she didn't get to make it.

Mrs. Oswald, 56, has been shushed firmly by a lawyer who thinks she should save her talking for the ears of the presidential commission investigating the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

And talk she did, behind closed doors. She testified for six solid hours Monday without saying anything which, in the opinion of Chief Justice Earl Warren, "would change the picture" of her son's role in the tragedy.

Nor did she claim that Lee Harvey Oswald, the truant son who at 13 was diagnosed as a potentially "dangerous person," did not fire the shots on Nov. 22 that killed Kennedy and wounded Gov. John Connally of Texas.

But as Warren observed, the commission has not yet interrupted the flow of testimony to ask that question, and he advised newsmen not to draw any inferences from the omission, because: "We have hardly asked her any questions throughout the day and of course she says she has more testimony to give."

The lawyer who first took up the mother's case, Mark Lane of New York City, was not on hand Monday. Mrs. Oswald asked that a new lawyer be provided.

The commission asked the District of Columbia Bar Association which designated John F. Boyle, formerly of Kansas City, a highly regarded Washington lawyer and a former assistant U.S. attorney.

Hints from Heloise

DEAR HELOISE: I have discovered that cut cheese will not dry out if the cut surface is spread with a thin coat of softened butter (margarine would do).

MRS. K. T. DRENNON. LETTER OF TRUTH

HELOISE: But why you may ask . . . won't people cut out the information they find interesting so that it will be available to them when they need it? I don't know why . . . human weakness, no doubt?

MARIE.

How true, how true! Please cut out what interests you or what you think you might use later.

Marie has the right idea.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Paste silver polish works beautifully in removing water lines and film from glasses.

Just take a dampened cloth or sponge, dip in the paste and rub those stubborn rings. Wash thoroughly with hot suds, then rinse with hot water and polish with a dry towel. Your glasses will shine beautifully.
